Semester/Year degree was/will be conferred:

List below two faculty from the Economics Department whom we can consult for a recommendation. They do not need to write a letter. We will contact the faculty members if you are a finalist for the Bowman Award.

Please list below the upper division courses you have completed for the major. Candidates must currently have a 3.75 GPA or higher in the upper division major requirements. Your GPA will be confirmed before your application is considered.

Please attach your answers to the five questions below. Word limit: 250 words per question.

One criterion considered for the Bowman Award is a well-rounded academic transcript with a diverse set of courses from various departments.

1. Describe the economics courses you have completed and are currently taking. Why did you choose these particular courses? Describe any research projects you have completed or are currently engaged in.
2. Describe how the courses you have completed from outside the Economics Department have impacted your study and understanding of economics.

A second criterion is outstanding extracurricular contributions to the Department or University.

3. Describe your extracurricular activities or contributions to the Economics Department and/or University. In what ways, if any, are your study and knowledge of economics evident in those activities?

The third criterion is a demonstrated commitment to public service.

4. Describe your past and future public service activities. In what ways, if any, are your study and knowledge of economics evident in those activities?
5. Describe your future plans. How will you use your knowledge of economics in the future?
