ECONOMICS H195A FORM

************************************************************************
To earn Honors in Economics, you must meet ALL of the following requirements:
  • 3.5 GPA in all upper division economics coursework
  • 3.3 GPA in all UC Berkeley coursework
  • Completion of an approved honors thesis, as demonstrated by a passing grade in Econ H195B
************************************************************************

Econ H195A is a 2-unit course which must be taken pass/no pass. Econ H195A can be used to fulfill the Research Requirement for the Honors Program. It cannot be used as an upper division elective towards the requirements of the major.

Eligibility for Econ H195A:
  • Must be declared in Economics
  • Must have at least a 3.5 GPA in all upper division economics coursework, as well as a 3.3 GPA overall
  • Student has not taken Econ 191
  • Student plans to write an honors thesis
  • Must complete or is concurrently enrolled in Econ 140 or 141.

Deadline to apply: This form must be submitted to an Economics Undergraduate Advisor in 539 Evans Hall prior to the start of Phase II registration for the fall semester. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis until space is available.

Please Print or Type:

1. Student Name: ________________________________________________________________

2. SID number: _________________________________________________________________

3. Email: _________________________________________________________________

4. Semester you are requesting to enroll in Econ H195A: ________________

5. Anticipated date of graduation: __________________________

6. Semester in which you will be enrolled in Econ H195B: __________________________